Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Everyone is 2 here again with smiling faces. Yay.
3 What our technically fifth meeting on our 4 fourth charge, which is a review of court
5 forms. So again, we aren't going to end
6 up with new forms from this session. I
7 think that would be a bit of a challenge.
8 But we are going to identify areas where 9 the forms could be improved. And I bet 10 there are some ideas out there for where 11 the forms would be improved. I know I 12 have some. But I would like to hear from 13 those who use the forms.

14 MS. PAINE: Your Honor, if I might 15 just step in as a partial historian. So 16 the current forms were configured as part 17 of a national effort to make sure that 18 protective orders would be recognizable 19 and enforceable by law enforcement. And 20 it was an effort by the National Center
21 for State Courts a number of years ago.
22 So on the order side of things, we need
23 to sort of keep the format similar, but I
24 think there's lots of detail that can 25 change in there.

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 But law enforcement needs to know
2 where to look on those forms to know what 3 to enforce, and there's been a
4 significant amount of training done 5 around that.

6 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Okay. And
7 that's a good point. There are different
8 forms at issue. So we have the petition 9 form, which I think is where some 10 improvement could be made rather than 11 just, in my experience, allowing sort of 12 the narrative run on. Perhaps some more 13 focused, sort of sections, if you will.
14 And then there's the order side which I 15 do understand has some technical 16 requirements.

17 So do keep us on track with that.
18 That would be helpful.

19 MS. JASINA: I also want to say it 20 was probably three years ago, there were 21 some edits made to the DV petition form.
22 At least they were given to NHLA to 23 review and make comments and edits to, 24 which we did. But I don't know if that 25 process moved forward or if there were

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 some slight changes made to the form at 2 that time. But I do remember there was 3 what looked like, what I recall, being a
4 pretty significant overhaul of the forms, 5 so I'm just not sure what happened to 6 that work or if needed that might be a 7 good starting point for us.

8 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Does anyone
9 know what happened to that work?

10 MS. FREEMAN: That predates me.

11 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Okay. So --

12 MS. PAINE: And it postdates me,
13 Your Honor, so there's a gap.

14 MS. KRUEGER: Is Judge Carbon on 15 because I believe Judge Carbon was.

16 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: She is missing
17 today, unfortunately. So we will -- 18 we'll check on that.

19 MS. ZINKIN: She's in training.

20 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Yes.

21 MS. FREEMAN: What I can say is in 22 addition to the Project Passport
23 principles that Betsy referenced, the 24 other challenge that we need to look at 25 is that some of the information collected

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 is also needed to ensure that the orders
2 can be entered into a variety of 3 databases. And that includes both the 4 Federal NCIC database and potentially the 5 state database for orders that don't 6 qualify for NCIC. So some of the 7 information collected and required is not 8 by statute or court rule but in order to 9 ensure that those orders are going into 10 law enforcement databases.

11 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: And then that 12 is, again, reference the orders. That 13 doesn't impact the petition, or does it?

14 MS. FREEMAN: It impacts it insofar
15 as some of the information that we need
16 to gather that can make the petition a 17 little bit longer is needed for purposes
18 of filling out the order form.

19 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Okay. Those 20 who assist with petitioners filling out 21 the form, anything that comes to mind in 22 terms of hurdles, either with the DV
23 petitions or the civil stalking
24 petitions?

25 MS. ZINKIN: Erin, do you still have

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 the revisions that you suggested?

2 MS. JASINA: I probably do. Whether 3 they're in hard copy in my office or 4 somewhere on my computer, I'll kind of 5 poke around while we're on this call.

6 To answer the question, the previous 7 question, I would say a hurdle that they 8 are faced with initially is which form to 9 choose between the DV petition and the 10 stalking petition. So that's hurdle
11 number one. And then just a general
12 theme is that they don't really know, 13 victims and survivors don't know what is 14 required in the narrative section. We 15 will oftentimes see petitions with two 16 sentences, and then we'll see others with 17 five pages.

18 So you have victims and survivors
19 feeling like they need to do the kitchen 20 sink approach, which is outline every 21 single date of abuse. And then you find 22 others that will just more generally
23 state what has happened. There will be a 24 general statement that I've been harassed
25 or I've been abused for the past two

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 years. And we've seen varying orders, 2 temporary orders, issued off of those 3 different types of statements.

4 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: And you are 5 receiving these, this goes back to my 6 DOVE days, but you are getting those 7 petitions after they've been filled out.
8 You aren't necessarily helping that 9 process before it happens?

10 MS. JASINA: So we were running
11 somewhat of a pilot program through 12 funding, through VOCA funding when we 13 initially got VOCA funding. We were in 14 the crisis centers, onsite at the crisis
15 centers assisting victims and survivors
16 with filling out the DV petition. Once 17 COVID hit, that sort of changed our 18 process a bit. We weren't able to be 19 onsite. And then with the merger of LARC
20 and Pro Bono a lot of that assistance
21 went to 603 Legal Aid to provide that 22 assistance. So now, for the most part, I
23 will say we are getting the referrals
24 after the cases have already been filed,
25 the petitions have already been filed.

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: And with the 2 advocate community, if you will, same 3 thing, or you're there at the 4 beginning -- actually COVID, but what's 5 the norm?

6 MS. BEEBE: So I can speak a little 7 to that. I think Anne summed up what 8 we're seeing in that it is still a 9 challenge whether we're helping people
10 fill out the forms or not, assistance
11 with just breaking it down. I liked what 12 you said earlier about needing more focus
13 sections because people just don't know 14 what to include.

15 I really like the ones that New York
16 sample that was in the (indiscernible)
17 materials, where it listed the different 18 types of things, and then there was the 19 opportunity to expand on each incident.
20 And I think something like that would be 21 extremely helpful because it is really 22 hard. It's hard to know what to include,
23 and it's also hard to know how to present 24 that in a way that's impactful and 25 concise. And it is either all run on or

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 listing everything, or it's just not 2 enough information to provide the 3 information.

4 JUDGE YAZINSKI: As protocols, as I
5 was reviewing those, and I spoke with 6 Sarah and my clerk. When we revamped the 7 protocols in 2008 the comment sections
8 were enhanced to include directions for 9 staff. And in asking both my clerk and 10 Sarah both about how much training staff 11 is receiving and how much help they are 12 actually providing, it's become clear to 13 me that staff, either because we don't 14 have enough staff or they don't have 15 enough time, is not meeting what we were 16 hoping they would meet in protocols, and 17 that is to help decide between the two 18 choices DV and stalking, to also provide 19 information about the statute. It's the 20 protocols anticipated if far more
21 involved staff than we have seen, and I
22 think it's an area that would be helpful
23 because that's the first court person
24 that the victim sees.

25 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: And I know

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 there are, for example, the law library
2 has part of their public outreach
3 program, the LibGuides that are available
4 to the public in a variety of areas. And 5 these are general, and certainly they 6 explain the difference between the 7 stalking and the DV petitions. I'm sure,
8 and I'm aware, there are other resources 9 posted, but it still doesn't seem to 10 substitute for someone getting specific 11 guidance, you know?

12 You can go out and look at stuff on 13 the internet and read all kinds of 14 medical diagnoses to try to figure out 15 what you've come down with, but it's not 16 the same as having a trained person
17 available to help. So I think that's a 18 valid point.

19 And as the Access to Justice
20 Commission has discovered, trying to fill 21 that gap with volunteer attorneys,
22 advocates, you name it, it may be a 23 function that the court really has to 24 take on through staffing. And if we 25 don't have sufficient staff, that will be

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 something we're going to have to bulk up
2 on, if our legislative friends will give 3 us the money. So good points all.

4 And the New York process, I think we 5 can borrow from other successful states
6 in at least making the forms a little bit 7 more directive without going over the 8 line of giving legal advice, which of 9 course the court can't do.

10 MS. SCHOLLETT: Maybe in addition to 11 the staffing issue that a lot of folks
12 are raising, having a recommendation
13 about creating some kind of a decision
14 making tool. And I'm looking at Sarah, 15 I'm trying to remember if you were in the 16 meetings. A couple of years ago, okay,
17 we had some conversations with Judges
18 King and Ashley. And the courts had 19 looked at possibly creating kind of a 20 decision making tree for lack of a better
21 word that might help walk victims
22 through, walk petitioners through 23 choosing the correct form. I agree with 24 you completely, that's not a substitute
25 for a human being who can ask questions

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 and provide guidance, but maybe a
2 companion piece. And that didn't end up
3 moving forward but it might be worth
4 revisiting as well.

5 MS. FREEMAN: We just got --

6 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: I'm going to 7 sound like a broken record but -- oh, go 8 ahead.

9 MS. FREEMAN: I was going to say, we 10 just got as part of a piece of 11 legislation, the Vulnerable Adult 12 Protective Order legislation that 13 ultimately didn't go forward. We did 14 discuss a decision tree. But I would 15 echo, there is something invaluable about 16 having someone, an advocate, whether it's 17 a lawyer advocate or a crisis-center 18 advocate, with the person filling out the 19 petition because as wonderful and as 20 trained as our court staff are, they're 21 not trained to provide the advanced level
22 of safety planning that crisis center
23 advocates are. And so I do think there 24 is a distinction in the quality of 25 petitions that come in when someone has

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 the support of an advocate or an attorney
2 trained in domestic violence and safety 3 planning.

4 MS. BEEBE: I don't know if folks
5 can hear me because I understand I'm 6 still having technical challenges, but I 7 would reiterate though, one of the 8 challenges that we have is that we're 9 also just about support and not there to 10 give any sort of legal advice. So it was 11 really beneficial when we had the 12 (indiscernible) had NHLA located at the 13 crisis centers to help survivors. Well, 14 we could do that important piece about 15 safety planning, and yes, we can help 16 break down the forms, and help people to 17 understand them, but if it's just a 18 crisis center advocate, they're not 19 necessarily getting all of the 20 information they might need to adequately
21 fill out the forms.

22 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: And I think
23 that's an interesting point.
24 Anecdotally, there are some petitions
25 with the assistance of an advocate that

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 are no better, if you will, than just a
2 self-represented person. There is a
3 legal distinction between what's required
4 in the petition and what the advocates
5 are really trained to do, which is not -- 6 they aren't the same. Legal counsel and 7 the advocates training isn't the same.

8 So I think that is a recognition
9 I've come to just in sort of doing my 10 background work on this that it's not 11 enough just to call in an advocate, 12 there's still that missing link. And 13 unless New Hampshire Legal Assistance has 14 a staff of thousands, we have to find a 15 way to fill that gap.

16 It is my understanding, and you
17 folks can correct me, but advocates are 18 really more about safety training and 19 support for the victim, survivor or sort 20 of what they're going through, not 21 looking at the sort of processing the 22 case or prosecuting the case.

23 Am I correction on that?

24 MS. BEEBE: Absolutely. And because 25 that is the time that is of greatest risk

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 for someone who their partner, ex-
2 partner, who has been served with 3 restraining order, then it's really
4 critical that you have that crisis center 5 advocate piece but also access to the 6 legal assistance as well.

7 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Right. And 8 the idea of maybe -- I don't know, 9 nationally what other models there are,
10 but is there a model that combines legal 11 counsel with the advocacy center, or is 12 there some prohibition?

13 MS. FREEMAN: I can speak to New 14 York City's model. I was a staff
15 attorney for a victim services
16 organization in New York City, and in 17 that model there was we had advocates
18 that were part of our organization. The 19 advocates provided that safety planning
20 guidance and information about filling 21 out the protective order because not 22 everybody who is filling out a protective 23 order petition needed legal counsel, and 24 those advocates were trained to provide 25 legal information, not advice. But we

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 certainly, we were the attorneys taking 2 on clients who were also receiving
3 services from our crisis center
4 advocates.

5 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: And were you
6 working within the crisis center, or it 7 was a program that incorporated the 8 crisis centers?

9 MS. FREEMAN: So it was a program
10 that the crisis center employees and the 11 staff attorneys worked for the same 12 organization.

13 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Okay. And
14 that organization was?

15 MS. FREEMAN: There's a couple of 16 them in New York City. One is Safe 17 Horizon and one is Sanctuary for 18 Families.

19 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: And they are 20 not functions of the court system? They 21 are separately funded? So with grants or 22 whatever fundraising tools?

23 MS. FREEMAN: Correct.

24 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: So in New 25 Hampshire we have a piece of that, we

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 don't have that model, correct?

2 MS. FREEMAN: Correct. Yes.

3 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Okay.

4 MS. KRUEGER: Yeah. We've done
5 variations on those themes over the 6 years, and Pam Dodge can certainly talk
7 about it as well, utilizing NHLA staff
8 attorneys and paralegals, and utilizing 9 volunteer attorneys to be onsite at 10 crisis centers doing unbundled legal 11 services, and in addition to helping with 12 divorce and parenting cases. Also 13 assisting with 173-B and stalking cases.

14 And it really is a resource issue.
15 As the legal services community has 16 really worked collaboratively over, for 17 me the last fifteen years, on trying to 18 figure out the models with our crisis
19 center partners that are most effective.
20 And I think we all know having an 21 attorney onsite is the ideal.

22 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Right.

23 MS. KRUEGER: But it's just not 24 something we can pull off with the 25 resources that we have.

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: So it's 2 something that in New Hampshire we have 3 NHLA, we have DOVE, we have now 603
4 legal, and that is volunteer lawyers, but 5 what we don't have, which that New York
6 City model did, in a geographic area, is 7 a separate nonprofit, if you will,
8 umbrella agency that has staff attorneys
9 that are not relying on the volunteer
10 attorney but has actual people on staff 11 to do that piece of work. That 12 they're --

13 MS. KRUEGER: Yeah. And I would 14 just say that there's limited pools of 15 money and pots of money. So we'd, I 16 think, and with the coalition too, we've 17 also agreed that, like the VOCA money, 18 which is a huge amount of monies that 19 come in over the last few years; there's 20 Violence against Women Act legal 21 assistance for victims, money that's 22 harder to come by; there's STOP grant 23 funds that flow through the state, all of 24 those different pots of money, there's a 25 limit to them. And hiring lawyers at

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 crisis centers isn't necessarily the best
2 use of that resource, right?

3 Having a legal service and a legal 4 aid program that can together recruit
5 volunteer attorneys and be coordinated 6 and who's doing what cases and 7 prioritizing the use of those resources
8 has been a really effective model in New 9 Hampshire. But there are those limits, 10 right? So I just don't think there would 11 be -- you'd be taking resources from one 12 place and putting it into another place 13 at the detriment of the system that we 14 currently have, that we've worked really 15 hard to change. And with the merger that 16 just happened last year --

17 And Pam, feel free to chime in with 18 this because you've been around longer 19 than I have.

20 MS. DODGE: Yeah. I mean I can echo
21 everything that you're saying, and the 22 State is also trying to really establish 23 family justice centers as well, which is 24 kind of the one-stop shop for victims and 25 survivors of domestic violence, but

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 they're very, very costly. And that, to 2 sustain that kind of funding, to support 3 a multifaceted response to victims of 4 domestic violence, it's just not 5 sustainable, and they don't survive.
6 It's really problematic. And my 7 experience has been between NHLA and the 8 services of the Pro Bono Program, whether 9 at the Bar at 603 Legal Aid, we still, we 10 are very limited to respond to this big 11 needs that is out there.

12 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: So ramping
13 that up is another -- I mean, ramping up 14 our volunteer network is another ongoing 15 challenge, if you will, too, and bringing 16 this back to the forms, whatever 17 improvements we can advise to make to the 18 forms, to make it easier for people to 19 operate without legal counsel, that is 20 really addressing the fact that we don't 21 have someone at each courthouse or at 22 each crisis center to help at that stage.

23 Like the, I'll repeat myself, the 24 guided interviews in eFiling, which is 25 another substitute for that lack of

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 advice at that critical stage.

2 MS. DODGE: I would like to add
3 though that putting that kind of format
4 together would, I think, bring a much
5 stronger petition to the table, and then 6 the attorneys, when they do take the case 7 at a later time, at least have the 8 framework because these referrals,
9 whether they're to New Hampshire Legal 10 Assistance or to a volunteer, the 11 turnaround, it's urgent. And there is 12 very little time to respond.

13 MR. STRASBURGER: So as we're having 14 this discussion about forms, it's 15 occurred to me that our process has 16 involved this notion of the allegations 17 being sworn to, and the respondent having 18 notice of those allegations, and the 19 allegations being sufficient for the 20 court to make a finding. And while I
21 think that revising the forms to include 22 certain check the box areas might be 23 easier for the court to identify what the 24 173-B allegations are, I just want to 25 make sure that we don't lose focus of the

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 due process notion that everyone should 2 be on notice as to what the allegations
3 are so that there can be a fair hearing.

4 When I represent the petitioner, I'm 5 very mindful of that, and I know that the 6 general public may not be, but I always 7 make sure that when I'm representing a 8 petitioner, we're very specific because 9 if we are not, we run the risk of the 10 court saying, well, that's not in the 11 four corners of the petition, so I'm not 12 going to consider it. And the 13 respondents entitled to notice.

14 And when I'm defending a petition, 15 I'm quick to raise an objection when 16 there is some testimony that has -- that 17 relates to an issue that hasn't been pled
18 and hasn't been included in the petition.

19 So I think whatever way we can get 20 the message out there to petitioners that 21 they're not going to be allowed,
22 necessarily, to testify to allegations
23 that have not been properly noticed, that 24 might be helpful. I don't know whether 25 that would be some bold paragraph on the

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 form.

2 But I think that's important for us
3 to keep in mind. Because if we get to a
4 point where we're literally just checking
5 a box, okay, I've suffered false
6 imprisonment, check; I've been the victim 7 of simple assault, check, those types of 8 things as far as being properly prepared 9 to litigate at a hearing, I don't think 10 are sufficient. I think there would need 11 to be some detail there.

12 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Right. You'd 13 have to have; I've been the victim of X 14 because and some detail.

15 MR. STRASBURGER: Right. So I just 16 wanted to throw out there --

17 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Yes.

18 MR. STRASBURGER: -- the notion
19 that, I think for both sides, I think the 20 petitioner wants to make sure that the 21 court has sufficient information to make 22 the findings that it needs to make in 23 order to grant their requested relief.
24 But also equally as important for the 25 respondent, who is entitled to understand

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 exactly what the allegations are, so
2 that -- or fulfilling that due process
3 requirement, and making sure that the 4 allegations are properly sworn to,
5 there's been proper notice, and both 6 sides have an equal opportunity to 7 litigate those issues.

8 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Just part of 9 the issue that I'm wanted to talk about 10 as well is looking at the forms, people
11 have any specific ideas for improvement
12 today. And we're talking about the DV
13 forms I've listed for civil stalking.
14 There are the email pilot project forms,
15 which are a takeoff on the regular forms.
16 The motion for weapons return form,
17 criminal forms, all things we've uploaded 18 that, and Superior Court Civil 19 Restraining Order forms, so they're all 20 part of what's up for discussion.

21 But also going forward, what's the 22 process if some group stakeholder,
23 someone in the business in this space
24 comes across a glitch in a form. So what 25 do you do? Is there a feedback process

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 that we should be looking at? I've put 2 down, obviously, with the Bar we have a
3 committee on cooperation with the courts 4 meets monthly, eight, nine months of the 5 year, which for lawyers is a way to give 6 feedback to all three courts, you know, 7 Supreme, Superior, and Circuit. Do we 8 need to have periodic stakeholder 9 meetings? Do we have a line right to 10 Jean, the program manager at the AOC?
11 What is the process that makes sense if 12 people have form related or even process
13 related questions? So I throw that out
14 also in connection with this particular 15 topic.

16 MS. ZINKIN: I just wanted to point
17 out, just going back to what Jon was 18 saying. Just looking at the New York
19 form that's up on the Dropbox and not 20 that that's the be all and end all of all 21 court forms, but in addition to having a
22 survivor check off the conduct, you know 23 disorderly conduct or harassment or 24 whatever, the next thing says describe 25 each incident starting with the most

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 recent incident; state date, time and 2 location of each incident, specify all
3 injuries; and if any weapons were used,
4 use additional sheets when necessary. So
5 I think it's possible to have both checks
6 and some required narrative.

7 MS. LAFRANCE: Can I just ask a
8 quick question point of information --

9 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Yes.

10 MS. LAFRANCE: -- if you will. You
11 keep referencing a New York form. I
12 don't see it in my Dropbox; where is it?

13 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Good question.

14 MS. LAFRANCE: Okay.

15 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Are you
16 (indiscernible)?

17 MS. LAFRANCE: I didn't see anything
18 from yesterday to that Anne had sent 19 around. I think it was the stalking. I
20 don't know if I --

21 MS. BEEBE: I found the New York
22 form in today's box in Dropbox. It was 23 just one of the pieces.

24 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: So under 25 Charge 4 is that where it is?

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 MS. ZINKIN: I muted myself. Yes,
2 under Charge 4, let me just get into 3 Dropbox for a second.

4 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: I don't dare
5 try to go into my Dropbox on this 6 computer, I'll end up.

7 MS. ZINKIN: There are all the forms
8 that New Hampshire has, and then there's 9 this New York Petition for Family Offense
10 that was uploaded on the 12th. You 11 should -- after the call we can sort of 12 troubleshoot if you want to do that.

13 MS. LAFRANCE: Yes. Thank you. I
14 didn't want to take up too much time.

15 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: No, no, no.
16 It's okay.

17 MS. LAFRANCE: I just wanted to know 18 if it was me or not.

19 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: I'm not a 20 Dropbox expert. I excluded you from 21 Dropbox just randomly.

22 MS. LAFRANCE: Like I do. I did 23 have another point to make too about the 24 forms. How many of these are subject to 25 the, you know, what was talked about

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 earlier that they're kind of uniform so
2 that police can recognize, you know, know
3 where to go for certain information. Is 4 it just the DV petition or is it all of 5 these?

6 MS. FREEMAN: It's any order of 7 protection that is entered into law
8 enforcement databases that is entitled to 9 full faith and credit. So right now for 10 us that means the criminal bail
11 protective order, the DV order, the 12 stalking order, and two juvenile abuse
13 orders are all subject to Project
14 Passport. It's the actual order. The 15 petition isn't subject to Project
16 Passport, but it needs to collect enough
17 information to fill out that Project
18 Passport from and to also be entered into 19 NCIC or STOP.

20 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: And the forms
21 are reviewed on a periodic basis 22 internally, and obviously that's one of 23 the reasons. But getting feedback from 24 the users of the form or proxies for the 25 users of the form, is something we should

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 think about going forward.

2 MR. ENDRES: One thing that's not 3 directly related to the form but the 4 hallmarks that we had to review the 5 forms. I went on the Supreme Court 6 websites trying to find the forms and 7 actually found I had -- not the Supreme 8 Court but the judicial branch website and 9 had a little bit of difficulty locating
10 the forms. There is a forms tab, and I
11 know that everything is there, but I sort 12 of poked around a little bit because 13 there's a box that comes up that says, 14 what do you want to do today? How can we 15 help you today? And it says, I want to,
16 and I was looking for I want to file a 17 domestic violence restraining order, and 18 there's nothing there. And the self-
19 help, there's a number of boxes, but I 20 knew they were there, but I couldn't get 21 to the forms from there. So that might 22 be something that--

23 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: That's our new 24 website. I could probably find it on the 25 old one though. That's very good input

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 because we just rolled that out, and it
2 does have its glitches.

3 MS. LAFRANCE: Lynn, doesn't the 4 coalition link on your website somewhere 5 too? Is Lynn here? Yeah, there she is.

6 MS. SCHOLLETT: I am. Hi. Do we -- 7 I think that we would link to the -- I
8 haven't looked lately, I'm sorry. I
9 didn't think to do that for today. I 10 assume we would link to the judicial 11 branch just to make sure we have the most 12 current ones. I can double check.

13 MS. FREEMAN: To provide some 14 historical background, there was a debate
15 about whether or not DV and stalking 16 petitions should be available on the 17 internet because some stakeholders had 18 raised the concern about someone starting 19 to fill them out on their computer and an 20 abusive partner finding the petition and 21 it being a safety concern. When we had 22 the COVID shut down it became apparent we 23 needed to increase access to forms 24 remotely. And to that end, we put the 25 forms on the website, but that is fairly

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 new. And at the same time started the 2 email petition pilot so that people
3 working with crisis centers could submit 4 them electronically. But actually having 5 the petitions available electronically is 6 a fairly new decision, and there are a 7 host of safety concerns with it that 8 we've been working through.

9 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Are you
10 talking about interactive, like fillable
11 forms versus just having the form
12 available for someone to print out? Or 13 is it the same concern with both types?

14 MS. FREEMAN: Historically, we 15 didn't have the DV petitions on the 16 internet at all because their advocates 17 had raised the safety concern that they 18 just wanted people to be able to access
19 them at the court. But when COVID hit, 20 we had discussions with stakeholders, and 21 it became apparent that we needed to 22 increase the access and that the risk of 23 not providing it outweighed the risk of 24 something happening.

25 And so that -- so we did two things.

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 We posted the forms that someone could 2 print out and bring to the court and fill
3 out, and then we also started the email 4 petition pilot program that we're still 5 monitoring and testing, and that is a
6 fillable petition that someone can access
7 if they're working with a crisis center.

8 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Okay. So at 9 this point, are there any thoughts about 10 not having these forms available on the 11 web from the group here? Or is that 12 something that if we can sort out the how 13 to find them problem, we should continue 14 to do?

15 MS. BEEBE: Can I (indiscernible)?

16 FEMALE SPEAKER: Go ahead, Kathy.

17 MS. BEEBE: I understand that safety 18 concern. However, it is extremely 19 beneficial to have access to the forms 20 electronically. I mean one of the 21 challenges that we saw was sometimes 22 they're not, they're bringing only a 23 phone for someone to use to fill out the 24 forms, and if it couldn't be done in that 25 manner, then that made it challenging to

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 the staff to get it to the courthouse or 2 one of the crisis centers to be able to 3 access to do that piece.

4 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: So crisis
5 centers accessing fillable forms doesn't 6 present the same risk that someone doing 7 it at home would, directly from the 8 website? Although, do you get calls from 9 people at home filling out their own
10 form, and you're guiding them by 11 telephone?

12 DR. HAMPTON: One of the things
13 that -- go ahead.

14 MS. BEEBE: I was going to say, it's 15 not ideal, but that did happen during 16 COVID.

17 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Okay.

18 DR. HAMPTON: One of the things that 19 I've heard at the visitation center where 20 we'll get some survivors in, and some of 21 the comments we've gotten is that they 22 said, I really like the idea of being 23 able to access the form, but maybe not at 24 my house if I don't feel safe, maybe it's 25 at the library, maybe it's on my phone.

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 But I really like being able to access it
2 at a time when I'm not standing at a
3 window with someone expecting me to know
4 what I'm supposed to be doing. It feels 5 a lot less stressful; I can do it on my 6 own time. So I know people have liked
7 having the option of doing it either way.

9 maybe it, again, is a little bit of 10 guidance as to here's this form, make 11 sure you're in a safe place when 12 you're --

13 DR. HAMPSON: Um-hum.

14 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: -- filling it
15 out.

16 MS. LAFRANCE: Yeah. That's what I
17 was going to say. Have, maybe when 18 they're done or if they go to exit, you 19 get the little popup saying, not only, 20 make sure you close this window, but also 21 delete your history, right? Because 22 anybody can look on the history and see 23 exactly what page they went to.

24 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Yes.

25 MALE SPEAKER: Right. And one of

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 the things that people, you know, see the 2 escape button. And I would encourage any 3 agency that has one to go ahead and have 4 the escape button, and then once you hit 5 escape, go ahead and hit the back button,
6 and on a lot of sites you're going to go
7 right back to the previous page. And so
8 it's real important to check to make sure 9 that if there's a second layer. Some of 10 them will have it with the scrolling
11 through five or six pages of the weather
12 report and the food channel and stuff
13 like that, and it's harder to identify.
14 But so many of them immediately go right 15 back, and offenders figure this out in 16 two seconds.

17 MS. FREEMAN: And that's something 18 we actually considered on our when we 19 were developing some of these forms on 20 our website. We discuss whether or not 21 we could put an escape button. But that 22 exact concern was raised to us whether or 23 not it was creating a false sense of 24 safety for survivors when you have a
25 popup and it makes it seem safe, but a

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 slightly tech savvy perpetrator might be 2 able to find where that person's been.

3 DR. HAMPTON: Right. Yes.

4 MS. ZINKIN: I'm just going to say
5 real quickly in terms of the website, and 6 this is something, Judge, that maybe we 7 can bring up with Brian (ph.). The way
8 you find the forms you first have to know
9 what court --

10 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Yes.

11 MS. ZINKIN: -- these petitions are 12 going to be filed in. So if you know 13 the -- if you happen to know that that's 14 a district division thing --

15 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Right.

16 FEMALE SPEAKER: -- as opposed to 17 family divisions, then you can go form, 18 district division, and there all of the 19 forms are, and you can find the domestic 20 violence petition pretty easily. But if 21 you are a survivor and you have no
22 idea --

23 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Right.

24 FEMALE SPEAKER: -- which division
25 of the circuit court handles DV

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 petitions, then I can imagine that's 2 pretty difficult.

3 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Yes.

4 MS. JASINA: I'd also just like to 5 add in terms of having electronic access 6 to the forms. Prior to them being 7 available on the court's website you 8 would either go to the court or you would 9 get them from the crisis center. But 10 then you would probably, typically, if 11 you weren't filling it out at the crisis 12 center, you are filling it out at the 13 courthouse. And that took considerable 14 amount of time for some people, so they'd 15 spend maybe three hours just writing the 16 petition at the courthouse. Also, I know 17 that when people were kind of getting 18 to -- not all people but some reports 19 that we received, the victims who went to 20 the courthouse close to 4 o'clock were 21 feeling a lot of pressure.

22 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Right.

23 FEMALE SPEAKER: Who went to a 24 conference room, and then there would be 25 repeated check-ins from court staff, like

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 are you done, are you done, are you done?

2 The judge needs this, the judge needs
3 this. And that was stressful for a lot 4 of people that we were speaking with and 5 working with.

6 So having the ability to do it at 7 home or do it at a friend's house or do
8 it at a crisis center and taking the time
9 so that you don't feel; one, any pressure 10 to complete it in a particular amount of 11 time; and two, you're not doing it in an 12 environment where you may not feel safe 13 or comfortable; and three, it's just as 14 people for the court really to have to be 15 concerned with in terms of conference
16 rooms and where's everybody at and what's 17 the safety of the person at the 18 courthouse who's filling out this 19 petition who may have been stalked to the 20 courthouse. So it's just like a lot of 21 really good reasons, I think, that make 22 it seem worth it to have them accessible 23 electronically on the court's website.

24 DR. HAMPTON: The other reason I
25 would toss out that I've heard from some

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 people, they say, if they're accessing it
2 on the computer and English is not their 3 primary language, and they're having 4 trouble understanding it, you can do a 5 translate, and then they read the 6 questions, okay, I understand this better
7 than I would have had I just tried had I
8 just tried to get through it in English.
9 They still have to fill it out in the 10 same way, but there's an accessibility 11 feature for being able to access it on 12 the web.

13 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: And if the 14 person is at someone, a friend's house,
15 they don't -- they still have the 4
16 o'clock deadline, but they can work
17 through that and bring it in the next day 18 kind of thing.

19 DR. HAMPTON: Um-hum.

20 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Assuming 21 they've got --

22 MS. FREEMAN: One point of 23 clarification?

24 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Yes.

25 MS. FREEMAN: The emailed file

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 petitions can only be submitted
2 electronically between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m.
3 And the reason for the earlier cutoff is 4 because (indiscernible) at least two 5 phone calls contacts between the filer
6 and court staff. The first one to 7 confirm that the petition has been 8 received, and then the second one to let 9 the person know the outcome of the 10 decision. And we needed to make sure 11 that those callers could get in touch
12 with court staff.

13 So as part of the discussions with 14 our multidisciplinary stakeholders group, 15 we decided that the filing period will be 16 8 a.m. to 3 p.m., which is another reason 17 why those email petitions are only 18 available through crisis centers, we're 19 able to safety plan around that concern.

20 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Okay. So it 21 would be difficult to or inadvisable to 22 provide interactive forms without that 23 link to the crisis center?

24 MS. FREEMAN: Yeah. And we are 25 particularly concerned about someone

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 potentially submitting a petition after 2 hours and court staff not seeing it until 3 the morning. And there were concerns
4 about whether or not that person thought 5 they were getting protection overnight or 6 if it was still safe for them to go
7 forward in the morning. So this was kind 8 of the middle ground that we came up
9 with, with consultation with the crisis
10 center through the Coalition and NHLA and 11 others thinking about safety.

12 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: But if someone 13 who wanted to download, print out, have a 14 copy, walk around with it, nonfillable, 15 but just the form, rather than going to 16 the court, they could do that from the 17 website? Work on it, fill it out by 18 hand, and bring it in during court hours?

19 FEMALE SPEAKER: Absolutely.

20 MALE SPEAKER: Yes.

21 MS. JASINA: I just want to clarify 22 too that the electronic filing, it was 23 intentional that that link would only be 24 accessible through the crisis centers,
25 but it's also accessible through NHLA.

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 We have submitted those on behalf of our 2 clients on occasion which has worked 3 really well. I don't know if we would 4 want to expand that perhaps to the DOVE
5 panel. But I think just keeping that 6 narrow because we're well connected with 7 the crisis centers so that was part of 8 the reasoning behind expanding that link
9 to include NHLA.

10 MS. FREEMAN: That's right. And the 11 Family Justice Center, that's the other 12 group that was be able to access it. And 13 it really is to ensure that there's that 14 safety planning component because there's 15 a different safety analysis given that 16 this is being done on a computer and 17 there's these phone calls with court 18 staff, and the person filling it isn't in 19 the lobby where there's court security.
20 So given these new safety concerns, we 21 really felt that it was better to have 22 people working directly with an entity 23 that was familiar and comfortable with 24 safety planning.

25 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Which may not

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 extend to all the lawyers on the DOVE
2 panel.

3 MS. HORNICK: I wonder, and this -- 4 I don't think this is too far in the 5 weeds but having had to do a lot of these 6 syllable forms online myself, when I've 7 made a mistake and tried to go back or 8 something and then everything disappears
9 because whatever, either the program I'm 10 using or the computer I'm using doesn't 11 have the ability to save the information.
12 I mean, again, I throw that out there 13 whether or not that is true with some of 14 these forms, I don't know. Although I do
15 know that some of the court forms that I 16 have to tried to fill you can't save and 17 then try to fill out another one. So I
18 just hope that that's an issue that a 19 victim wouldn't have to sort of endure 20 what with everything else and all the 21 other stress that they are having.

22 So again, I don't know if that's way 23 too far in the weeds, it's probably 24 something, Sarah, that you've figured out 25 and addressed.

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 But the other comment I just want to 2 make because DOVE has come up a couple of 3 times. I've worked all over in Coos
4 County, Northern Grafton County, there is 5 such a need for DOVE attorneys up there.
6 And there have been male victims and 7 female victims who have just called my 8 office just begging for whatever I can 9 do, which obviously isn't much, but I
10 just want to make that last comment.
11 Thank you.

12 MS. DODGE: Thank you.

13 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: It's 14 interesting, and again, this a tough
15 space, and I'll let Pam talk, but the 16 pandemic created some deficiencies in 17 some other areas. I think of landlord-18 tenant where you can have counsel from 19 further away assisting folks, and in this 20 space that's a bigger challenge.

21 Go ahead, Pam.

22 MS. DODGE: Thanks. Yes, so the 23 North Country has been traditionally a 24 real, real issue for legal services.
25 NHLA has an office up there and they do a

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 great job, but it's small. It's a long 2 ways away, and there aren't a lot of 3 attorneys up there.

4 I do want to say that COVID did help
5 support the North Country where it comes 6 to DOVE cases because we had attorneys, 7 private attorneys, who were just taking 8 those cases on a routine basis, and I 9 think that it helped open up some 10 availability through NHLA as well.

11 And just to backtrack real quickly
12 with Erin's thought that perhaps we 13 should open up the online filing for DOVE 14 attorneys. But that's not the scope of 15 service that we have traditionally asked
16 from the private bar, and it was limited
17 to the final hearing. However, it
18 doesn't, you know, we couldn't reconsider 19 or look at some kind of pilot with 20 private practitioners as well.

21 And one last thing, kind of going 22 back to an earlier meeting that we had.
23 If we get into a clinic model that online 24 petition would be really important to 25 have so.

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 JUDGE YAZINSKI: Sarah, can I ask --

2 MS. DODGE: I wanted to just tell 3 you that.

4 JUDGE YAZINSKI: Can I ask you, if 5 we, on a routine basis, allowed lawyers
6 to represent petitioners through Webex
7 because we have the same problem in 8 Sullivan County that the North Country
9 does, we don't have a lot of attorneys, 10 and I rarely see a DOVE attorney. If we 11 allowed representation routinely through 12 Webex, do you think that would increase 13 our ability to have DOVE attorneys?

14 MS. DODGE: Absolutely.

15 MS. JASINA: Yeah, I agree with Pam.
16 One, if there's a benefit to COVID, the 17 one benefit was that we were able to 18 increase access for victims and survivors
19 because we had people in our Concord
20 office handling North Country cases,
21 people in our North Country handling
22 cases in Nashua. I will say the 23 telephonic hearings were challenging, we 24 didn't have the option of Webex hearings, 25 and that made it difficult in terms of

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 presenting evidence, and submitting
2 evidence, and cross-examination, and when 3 there were interpreters, that was 4 incredibly challenging. But maybe
5 exploring Webex hearings, which I know
6 have safety concerns attached, you know,
7 if people are in their homes and abusers
8 being able to see inside the safe space
9 that the victim is at. So lots of things
10 to consider, but in terms of an access 11 perspective, it definitely increased, so 12 I would agree with Pam on that.

13 JUDGE YAZINSKI: I would view it or 14 anticipate that you would allow the 15 attorney to appear by Webex, but still 16 expect the parties in court. We do that 17 in probate all the time and 18 guardianships. And if it would increase
19 the access to DOVE attorneys, I don't see 20 any reason why we couldn't just have the 21 attorney or the attorney for both clients
22 appearing by Webex.

23 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: And meanwhile,
24 the survivor victim and the advocate
25 would be in court.

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 JUDGE YAZINSKI: Along with 2 security. Correct.

3 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Along with 4 security. There is also, and this is,
5 again, future stuff, but we are looking 6 at a pilot and hopefully it will go
7 broader, but putting a remote access 8 setup in the law library here in the 9 Supreme Court building, if you go, where 10 there's security. And in one of our 11 conference rooms to provide a station for 12 people who don't have compatible
13 technology to do remote hearings.

14 If this is something that works out, 15 we might be able to do that in various 16 locations around the state. So that's 17 another kind of expansion that might 18 provide some relief.

19 MS. LAFRANCE: Can I just go back a 20 couple of minutes --

21 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Yes.

22 FEMALE SPEAKER: -- to what Marcy
23 was saying about the forms being filled
24 out?

25 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Yes.

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 FEMALE SPEAKER: Maybe the technical 2 person who does the forms can answer
3 this. Before I bought the advanced Adobe
4 program, I pay for it monthly because I
5 just use Adobe extensively, I'm always 6 scanning things in. I could not save any 7 forms either from the website, from the 8 judicial website. I don't know if any 9 other attorneys or anybody else has 10 discovered that, but since I have the 11 advanced one, I can save it. But I mean,
12 we can only assume unless the person
13 seeking the restraining order uses Adobe
14 regularly and does pay for the advanced 15 program, we can assume that they only 16 have the free one that anybody can get if 17 you download it off of internet. I don't 18 know if anybody else has discovered that 19 so --

20 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: All right. I
21 think the forms being available is really 22 just the paper form to be printed out and 23 handwritten at this point. I think the 24 only fillable aspect, savable or not, is 25 through the crisis centers.

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 Am I right about that?

2 MS. FREEMAN: I can speak to the 3 email petition pilot one is savable.
4 There are some technical challenges that 5 we've worked closely with the crisis
6 centers to help people fill out, but on 7 our end, we have to actually make each of 8 those fields specifically fillable, so
9 every form would have to be touched to do
10 that. It's not -- it was pretty 11 technically challenging and time
12 consuming to do those fill-out petitions
13 that we have right now.

14 And there are technical challenges,
15 which is another reason why it's been so
16 critical at the crisis center connection
17 and having that person be able to work
18 with a survivor if something comes up.
19 And they may have to abandon filling it 20 out by email and getting them to the 21 court in person. And so we really had 22 that close partnership with the crisis
23 centers in part because of the technical 24 challenges.

25 MR. ENDRES: When I open the

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 domestic violence petition from the 2 judicial website, mine is fillable.

3 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Really?

4 MR. ENDRES: So. Yeah.

5 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Great.

6 MR. ENDRES: And it's got a little 7 clear form button up at the top, and I
8 can fill that out.

9 MS. ZINKIN: It is fillable.

10 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: All right.

11 MS. ZINKIN: And I think I only have 12 the free Adobe.

13 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: But then the 14 question is, can you save it and print 15 it?

16 MS. ZINKIN: I've been able to save
17 court forms on my computer.

18 MR. ENDRES: Yeah.

19 MS. ZINKIN: And printing.

20 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: So then it's a
21 question of the self-represented person 22 fills it out would have to print it and 23 take it to the courthouse?

24 MS. ZINKIN: Right.

25 MR. ENDRES: Yeah. I can print it

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 and save it as well.

2 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Okay. Well,
3 we're advancing --

4 MS. HORNICK: So --

5 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: -- as we sit 6 here.

7 MS. HORNICK: Yeah. Just check on 8 that because I was able to save before I 9 bought the advanced Adobe, and then I'd 10 go back to edit it and it's empty so.

11 MS. KRUEGER: You have to save it 12 first and then fill it out.

13 MALE SPEAKER: Yeah.

14 MS. HORNICK: You can save it after.
15 I think that's the problem but not -- you 16 have to download it on your computer and 17 open it back up and then fill it out. So 18 it's like, it's multiple steps that you 19 know --

20 MALE SPEAKER: Yeah.

21 MS. KRUEGER: Well, thank you for 22 the lessons on that here, but I'm not 23 sure that -- anyway, thanks.

24 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: At least we've 25 identified hurdles to filling out these

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 petitions whatever form they take. All
2 right. Anything else on court forms?

3 MS. BEAUCHAMP: (Indiscernible). I'm 4 sorry.

5 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Go ahead. I
6 was going say any suggestions for: a, 7 improving forms, b, improving feedback on 8 forms, or anything else?

9 MS. BEAUCHAMP: I'm wondering if it
10 might be helpful for the forms to 11 actually prompt for a criminal case 12 pending and maybe for a little bit of 13 information about that criminal case.

14 I noticed in the protocols that it
15 suggests that court staff, I don't know 16 peruse Odyssey and to see if there are 17 any pending criminal matters or existing 18 protective orders. And the form, I
19 think, has checkboxes for is there
20 anything currently that you're involved
21 in; divorce, custody, protective order, 22 other. And I'm just wondering if 23 something there that specifically says
24 criminal. And I really don't know how 25 many people seek a civil restraining

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 order and already have maybe a bail order
2 in place as well that would be helpful
3 for the court to have in front of them
4 with the petition, as well as maybe the 5 charges that might be pending against the 6 defendant. Just a suggestion.

8 MS. FREEMAN: (Indiscernible)
9 helpful at times because the court may 10 not be aware of the charges because those 11 charges haven't come into the court yet.
12 So when an incident has happened, we 13 may -- the public often thinks the court 14 knows what the criminal case is, but we 15 may not yet know that there's going to be 16 a prosecution.

17 MS. JASINA: I had a question about 18 petitions creating a referral to DCYF.
19 If there is something in the petition 20 that indicates abuse or neglect has 21 occurred towards a child, is that an 22 automatic referral from the court to 23 DCYF? How is that considered, and is 24 there something on the court form, a box
25 that could be checked by the plaintiff

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 saying that there's concerns about the 2 kids? I don't know. I know that's not 3 the really the purpose of 173-B, but I'm 4 just curious if it's an automatic 5 referral in all cases if there is 6 potential abuse or neglect alleged in the 7 petition or how that gets flagged?

8 JUDGE YAZINSKI: We're mandatory
9 reporters, so if there's an indication
10 that there's abuse or neglect, we fill 11 out a form and send it to DCYF intake.

12 MS. JASINA: So is that by the judge 13 reviewing the petition and then at the 14 point of deciding whether or not to issue 15 temporary orders?

16 JUDGE YAZINSKI: Yes. It occurs at 17 that time. And generally, I will be 18 specific when I'm making a referral.
19 That referral involves allegations 20 against the party who is committing the 21 abuse or neglect as opposed to asking 22 that the entire family go under 23 investigation. I limit what I send on to 24 DCYF to the facts that give me cause for 25 concern. There's never a guarantee that

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 that's not going to lead to an
2 investigation that leads to petition
3 against a parent or both parents.

4 MS. JASINA: Okay. Thank you.

5 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Interesting
6 intersection of case types.

7 Anything else for today, random or 8 not? All right.

9 Well, no one listened to Judge
10 Yazinski and brought an edited form, so I 11 don't know that anyone did their homework 12 but --

13 JUDGE YAZINSKI: That's okay.

14 FEMALE SPEAKER: We will take all 15 the comments, and Anne is taking notes as 16 we all speak, and put together some 17 recommendations.

18 As I mentioned yesterday, I'm going 19 to be looking for volunteers in various 20 areas to work with, you know, be a 21 sounding board with our team of 22 scriveners in producing some summary and 23 recommendations for the group. So think 24 about which of these topics, one or more,
25 really grabs your attention.

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 And we will reconvene next week on a 2 topic we touched on today, which is 3 increasing access to legal counsel and 4 advocates. And after that, we are going 5 to be talking about communication among 6 the various entities. I will say I'm 7 frankly happily amazed at how many people
8 spend an awful lot of time in this space.
9 And I think perhaps there's a good
10 opportunity going forward for a little 11 more sharing and a coordinated effort.
12 So I'm looking forward to that one as 13 well.

14 So you may proceed away. I thank 15 you again for your active involvement and 16 until the next time.

17 MS. ZINKIN: See you all Monday. I
18 mean Friday.

19 FEMALE SPEAKER: And don't forget
20 the public hearing.

21 MS. ZINKIN: Oh, that's right.

22 JUDGE HANTZ MARCONI: Don't forget
23 the public hearing. So if you can attend 24 in person, yay, I want a critical mass of 25 people in person. If you can't, it will

Domestic Violence Task Force - 1/19/22

1 be live streamed and recorded so that 2 those of you who can't attend can hear
3 what we hear. If anyone is watching in 4 real time and has a comment for -- I
5 don't think we're going to be asking a 6 lot of questions, but if there is an 7 inquiry that needs to be followed up on 8 with any particular speaker, you can 9 email Lisa (ph.) or me or Anne, and we 10 will follow up as needed.

11 But again, this is really our 12 opportunity to hear from members of the 13 public, so I don't expect any kind of 14 inquisition. And like I said, those who 15 can be here in person, we will do our 16 best to represent the task force.

17 All right. Any other questions on 18 Friday? No? See you Friday. Thanks.
